

ELECTRONIC SIGNATURES--WARNING. "A signature can be represented by a handwritten mark, a digitized image controlled by a personal identification number, or other media, where the appraiser has sole personal control of affixing the signature" according to the Comments in the USPAP definition of "Signature". Each appraiser must take all necessary precautions to protect his or her electronic signature. DO NOT PROVIDE ACCESS TO YOUR ELECTRONIC SIGNATURE TO A TRAINEE, TO ANOTHER APPRAISER, OR TO ANYONE.
